

UPPSALA
UNIVERSITET

Uppsala studentkår

Women's role for the promotion of Democracy, Peace and Development

- Lecture series with Mahnaz Afkhami

The ACT-without discrimination project invites, in cooperation with Uppsala Student Union and Uppsala University Equalities Office, to a lecture series and a panel discussion concerning women's role for the promotion of democracy, peace and development.

Gender and norms. What divides the west from the east in terms of gender equality? – A matter of religion, culture, social or economical factors?

With Mahnaz Afkhami, Founder and President Women's Learning Partnership

Women's situation and role in conflicts – Agents for Peace - Resolution 1325.

With Petra Tötterman Andorff, Secretary General Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, Sweden

In the Panel: Minna Salminen-Karlsson, Researcher at Centre for Gender Research, Uppsala University

Moderator: Lina Gidlund, Project manager ACT - Without Discrimination Project

Wednesday, November 17, 2010, at 18:00

Sal 10, Universitetshuset, Uppsala Universitet

Lecture is open and free of charge

The European Commission's anti-discrimination campaign

www.stop-discrimination.info